

Press release - May 18, 2017

Regulators Meeting in Lisbon

From 10th to 12th May 2017 took place in Lisbon another informal meeting between the Austrian, British, French, German, Italian, Spanish and Portuguese regulatory authorities.

During that period several matters were discussed, namely related to administrative cooperation, anti-money laundering and anti-financing terrorism, new games, virtual currencies, cross border enforcement, prevention of match-fixing and the integrity of sports betting market.

The next meeting will be held in Rome in October 2017. Following the discussion that took place in Lisbon, one of the main topics addressed will be the risk analysis concerning the integrity of sports betting.

