

Press release – April 12, 2018

Regulators meeting in Birmingham

The Austrian, British, French, Portuguese and Spanish regulatory authorities met on April 11th in Birmingham.

After reports on their national markets' status, the regulators exchanged on problem gambling detection, standardization in support of online gambling supervision, loot-boxes, skin betting and match-fixing.

The next meeting of the European regulators will be held in Paris in October 2018.